growth of the fisheries, animal husbandry and dairying sectors in the country.

The minister emphasised that the "Livestock holds an ancient tradition that connects us to our roots. Before we became an agricultural nation, we were herders, showing the deep-rooted connection we have with animals. Animals once relied solely on nature for their sustenance, grazing from morning till afternoon, trusting in their fate. But with amendments in animal feeding practices, we have become the top milk producer in the world contributing 24% of global milk production, emphasizing the importance of conscientious farming."

Although he raised concerns that "Livestock farmers are currently facing challenges with fodder availability. This affects health of animals which directly impacts the income of cattle herders. So the industry needs to address this issue on a large scale along with the need for proper care and attention of livestock." He added "The government's efforts to merge technology with livestock are commendable. The introduction of vaccination and mobile veterinary units revolutionized the care of livestock."

Mr Rupala is very hopeful for the fisheries sector as well. In his speech he brought everyone's attention to inspiring numbers. "India has tremendous potential to lead the world in the fisheries sector. From a mere Rs 3680 crore expenditure from independence till 2014, to a 20,000 crore Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana today, the transformation in fisheries sector is astounding. With the volume of aquaculture soaring from 30,000 crore in 2014 to 63,000 crore today, the potential to lead the world in this sector is within our grasp. Together, let us unlock the immense potential within our communities, industries and government to become global leaders in fisheries."

importance of technological advancements and the role of industry stakeholders in driving sustainable growth.

In the 64th National Symposium, CLFMA Lifetime achievement awardee Shri. Tarun Shridhar, IAS (Retd.) shed light on the theme 'Livestock Sector: Looking Beyond the Present' and shared valuable insights. The livestock sector encompasses various aspects such as animal husbandry, fisheries and aquaculture. This sector has witnessed impressive growth since its establishment.

"One notable development in this sector occurred in February-March 2019 when the decision was made to separate the Department of Fisheries from the Department of Animal Husbandry. This move recognized the distinct nature and importance of each sub-sector within livestock."

He even emphasised that "It is remarkable that animal husbandry contributes over 30% to the agricultural GDP, despite receiving less than 5% of total investment in comparison to agriculture. To further emphasize the significance of this sector, the Ministries of Fisheries were separated from Animal Husbandry and Dairy, highlighting the need for dedicated focus and attention. This separation from the agriculture ministry was a significant step towards recognizing the unique challenges and opportunities present in the livestock sector. It also paved the way for targeted investment in terms of both financial resources and appropriate policies."

In his address he remembered, "In fact, the first agenda item discussed in the first cabinet meeting of the new government was a 15,000 crore project aimed at eradicating disease control and improving the food processing system within the livestock sector. This demonstrates the government's commitment to prioritize and support the growth and development of this sector."

"Moreover, the livestock sector has proven to be beneficial to our economy, as evident in the export of fish and buffalo meat. These products, derived from livestock, contribute to our nation's economic growth and provide opportunities for international trade."

He even foresees "The Livestock sector plays a crucial role in our economy, and it is time we look beyond the present and invest in its growth. With appropriate policies and infrastructure development, this sector has the potential to create entrepreneurship opportunities and contribute significantly to our GDP. Let us encourage our children to consider careers in agriculture, fish farming and animal husbandry, and pave the way for a sustainable and prosperous future."

In conclusion, Tarun Shridhar's insights highlight the immense potential of the livestock sector and the need to look beyond the present to harness its full capabilities. "CLFMA has the potential to become a powerful advocate for the industry, taking a strong stand and voicing the concerns and aspirations of its members."

The address was followed by the presentation of the prestigious CLFMA Award. The CLFMA (Compound Livestock Feed Manufacturers Association) Award is a prestigious recognition given to livestock feed manufacturers who have made significant contributions to the industry. This annual award aims to acknowledge the hard work, innovation and excellence demonstrated by livestock feed manufacturers in India.

CLFMA award serves as a catalyst for the growth and development of the livestock feed industry. By acknowledging and celebrating excellence, it encourages manufacturers to continue striving for higher standards and innovation in their products. Ultimately, this benefits not only the manufacturers but also farmers, consumers and the entire livestock farming ecosystem.

CLFMA recognized the exemplary contributions of Dr Anand Kumar Pathak, Senior Assistant Professor (Animal Nutrition) in SKUAST Jammu and Dr Pankaj Kumar Singh, Professor and Head of Animal Nutrition Department of Bihar Animal Sciences University, Patna with the prestigious CLFMA Award. The awardees were felicitated by Dr O. P. Chaudhary, Joint Secretary (NLM/PC).

The event also saw the launch of the official souvenir, marking a significant milestone in the symposium with key dignitaries Dr O. P. Chaudhary, Mr Nadir B. Godrej, Mr Suresh Deora, Mr Divya Kumar Gulati, Mr Sumit Sureka, Mr Naveen Pasupathy, Mr Sandeep Kumar Singh, Mr Abhay Shah, present on stage. All office bearers were invited on stage to be an auspicious part of the prestigious moment.

Dr O. P. Chaudhary addressed the audience, highlighting the initiatives undertaken by the Department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying to promote the growth of the animal feed industry. He highlighted the government's initiatives and policies to support the livestock sector, encouraging industry players to leverage these opportunities for the sector's growth. He highlighted 3 major points in his speech.

1. "The government officials are now realizing that they are facilitators, and it is their responsibility to come upfront to guide and help people in the animal feed industry. This includes making policies that support the growth and development of the feed industry."
2. "Additionally, there is a need to address the issue of providing nutritious and balanced food to the poor section of the society. By innovating and balancing the feed and fodder, we can reduce the cost and make it accessible to the weaker sections. For those associated with CLFMA, it is important to explore new ways to earn and fulfil their needs. Exporting to other countries, particularly those that are economically weaker than us, can be a viable option. It is crucial to seek support from the government in this regard. It is also important to focus on increasing the purchasing power of the people and ensuring that the needs of those who do not have sufficient financial resources are also fulfilled. To achieve this, efforts should be made to include the unorganized sector in the organized sector."

3. "Currently, the capital subsidy in Animal husbandry for structural development fund will see a significant growth with an increase from 3 to 5 percent, making it 15,000 crores to 25,000 crores."

"Overall, there are several opportunities and challenges in the animal feed industry. By working together, government, industry, and stakeholders can create a favourable environment for growth and development." At the end of his speech, he congratulated all the CLFMA awardees as well.

As the event drew to a close, Mr Abhay Shah, Honorary Secretary of CLFMA of India, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries, eminent speakers, participants, sponsors, and organizers who made the event a success. He emphasized the importance of collaboration and knowledge sharing in driving the growth of the livestock sector. The evening was followed by an enjoyable networking dinner and live performances. This provided an opportunity for the participants to unwind, connect with industry peers and build lasting relationships.

The CLFMA of India is proud to have organized such a successful event, bringing together industry leaders and stakeholders for insightful discussions and networking opportunities. The 64th National Symposium of CLFMA of India proved to be a significant platform for knowledge exchange, discussion and collaboration in the livestock sector. The event successfully shed light on the challenges and opportunities beyond the present, encouraging stakeholders to work towards a sustainable and prosperous future for the industry.
