

Pune : CLFMA of India, the apex body of the animal feed manufactures in the country, hosted a seminar here, on 17th

Clfma's Seminar On Animal Feed Ingredients Was Informative And Interesting

Milletts," p thorough ov global grain. The pr were well-r appreciated cipants.

The ser cluded with a and engagir and-Answer

Mr. Div Gulati, Depu of CLFMA delivered a g of Thanks, gratitude to pants includ Staff membe active involv contributions its details comprehensively.

The ser deemed a success, with members an in attendanc the high enthusiasm a in the event.

Mr. Nagaraj Meda, Managing Director of Transgraph, Hyderabad, discussed raw material availability and price forecasting.

Dr. N. V. Kurkure, Director of Research at Maharashtra Animal and Fishery Science University, Nagpur, explored the potential of DDGS in animal feed.

Mr. Reece H. Cannady, Director of the U.S. Grains Council, delivered an insightful presentation titled "Global Grains Outlook Including Maize, Sorghum, and

Sustainable LIVING with the earth mind

Enzymes

May, at Hotel Ramee Grand Pune, to update the situation presently faced by animal feed industry in the country.

The seminar titled "Feed Ingredients – Supply Price and Alternatives," was held in a befitting style.

Dr. Dinesh Bhosale, Past Chairman of CLFMA of India, served as the Master of Ceremony. Dr. Bhosale began by introducing Mr. Suresh Deora, Chairman of CLFMA of India, the Chief Guest, Dr. Niteen V. Patil, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Maharashtra Animal & Fishery Sciences University (MAFSU), Nagpur, and Mr. Divya Kumar Gulati, Deputy Chairman of CLFMA of India.

The Seminar opened with a welcome address by Mr. Suresh Deora. He introduced the event's theme and warmly welcomed the Chief Guest and all participants.

The Keynote Address was delivered by Dr. Niteen V. Patil, who highlighted the need for essential collaboration between the Livestock Industry and the University.

Mr. S. V. Bhave, Past Chairman of CLFMA of India, delivered the opening remarks. Subsequently, speaker Mr. Sanjit Padhi, advisor to the All India Distillers Association, presented on the availability of DDGS in India, explaining

Probiotics

Acidifiers

Immunomodulators

We Provide Innovative Solutions

+91 20 2729 1020 / 21
info@abtli.in
www.abtlienzymes.com

Scan for more details

ENZYMES